Presents:

Calling All Classifiers!

Peter Cook is an internationally renowned Deaf performing artist whose works incorporate American Sign Language, pantomime, storytelling, acting and movement. Since 1986, Peter has been involved in "Flying Words Project" traveling extensively in the United States and abroad to promote ASL literature. He currently teaches at Columbia College in Illinois and in 1997 received the "Excellence in Teaching Award". Peter will present this all-day workshop on classifiers and their creative use to make ASL come ALIVE!
