Workshop objectives: This workshop will provide participants with an in-depth look at the process of providing constructive feedback to a mentee/protégé. Participants will learn how “negative” feedback and “positive” feedback are perceived by the mentee/protégé given various personality factors, time in the field, experience with the target and source languages, and environmental factors. Mentor-participants will practice pre-conferencing, developing and delivering feedback, and post-work debriefing with mentees/protégés. There will also be a discussion about source materials and resources for mentors.

- Early-bird registration ends February 2, 2019.
- This workshop will be presented in ASL.
- No partial CEUs will be given.
- CEUs Approved

JAMIE RIX, MA, CI/CT, SC:L, BEI-III, EIPA SECONDARY

Jamie Rix is a nationally certified American Sign Language interpreter with 25 years of professional interpreting and teaching experience. She holds the national Certificate of Interpreting (CI), Certificate of Transliteration (CT), and Specialist Certificate: Legal (SC:L) from the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (RID). She also holds the MI-BEI III and the EIPA Secondary. Jamie's interpreting experience includes government, education, medical, mental health, theatre, platform, employment, and legal/court work. She presents workshops about such topics as interpreter certification/testing, best practices for working with Deaf and hard of hearing students, self-assessment techniques, and legal interpreting.

She has presented to the National Association of Interpretive Naturalists regarding ways to accommodate county parks programs for Deaf and hard of hearing visitors and the National Consortium of Interpreter Education Centers regarding ways power and privilege can influence interpreters' language choices. Jamie graduated from Western Michigan University (WMU) with a BA in Sociology with an emphasis in Social Psychology and a minor in Criminal Justice. She began graduate studies at the University of Northern Colorado where she participated in the Legal Interpreter Training Program, which will culminate with a Master of Arts in Communications at Western Michigan University.
